

VIRGINIA KRALJEVIC

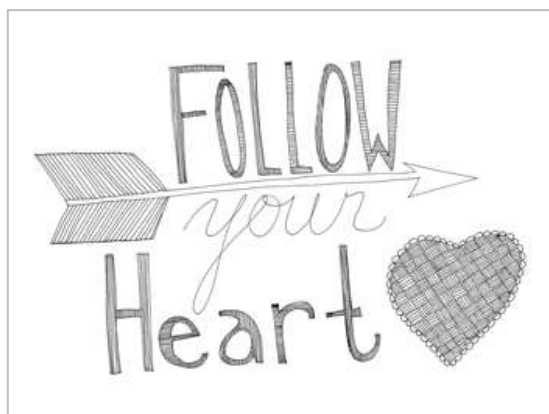

is an American artist and illustrator. Her studies at the American University of Paris and Fordham University led to an array of experiences in publishing, fashion, digital media, and visual display, all of which helped define her signature style. Virginia's intricate pen and ink drawings are greatly inspired by fractals, earth science, space exploration, imaginary landscapes, and adventures in the ordinary world. Collaborations with brands such as Lacoste, Vans, Suzuki, Inkerman & Blunt Publishing, and West Elm have brought her work to life on everything from clothing, catalogues, and books to automobiles, office walls, and storefronts.
