

STAFFAN WIDSTRAND - has been garlanded with awards throughout his career. He is a ten-fold prize-winner in the “BBC Wildlife/BG/Shell Wildlife Photographer of the Year” competition; he was “Nature Photographer of the Year” in Sweden in 2002 and has been a four-fold prize-winner in the German “Europäischer Naturfotograf des Jahres” competition. Staffan Widstrand was born in Uppsala in Sweden in 1959 and grew up in the town, and also in Dar-es-Salaam in Tanzania. He has been a professional photographer and writer since 1985 and is a founding Member of the International League of Conservation Photographers. He is also one of the Directors of the Pan-European photography initiative, “Wild Wonders of Europe”, the largest ever nature photography project in the world. He is the author and photographer of five books. His lectures on Ecotourism, Carnivores, the Arctic and Conservation travels have taken him around the world, from Uganda to Lithuania and from the Antarctic to Barbados. He is an ex-Reserve Officer at Captain’s rank in the Royal Swedish Army Tank Corps. Widstrand describes his artwork in two ways: firstly, “realistic photo-documentary” and secondly “non-descriptive, non-figurative shapes, forms and colours; playing with graphic elements just for visual pleasure”.
